Forgiving and Forgetting

Western Swing Tempo 4/4

Verse

I've got a heartache burning deep inside
Made such a hole, swallowed my pride and begged you to come back, please be mine
Don't know how I'll go on living
But I do know I'm forgiving all you said, Forgiving and forgetting 'til I die

Chorus

Forgiving and forgetting that's my motto since you're gone
Forgiving and forgetting all that went wrong
You took me for a fool, you acted down right cruel
But forgiving and forgetting – that's my song

How Long

*How long have you been moving on without me
How long has she been on your mind
First you ignored her
Now you adore her
Somewhere in-between you crossed the line*

There's a cold chill passing through this broken heart of mine
And I'm weary from the long and sleepless nights
Pictures scattered on the bed
Once framed our love, but now instead
Are the image of a love now gone from sight

*How long have you been moving on without me
How long ...*

I cried until my eyes were dry as desert sand
As I sorted through our favourite souvenirs
I could take some of the blame
But I know that it won't change the truth that led to lies and now my tears.

*How long have you been moving on without me
How long ...*

Cold Hearted Man

Well you're a cold hearted fella
A thief and I tell ya, took my joy and you won't give it back
I tried to resist ya, found when I kissed ya was no hidin', no- no turning back now the blues came to get me 'cause you up and left me you're a cold cold cold cold hearted man

Well I was mindin' my own business you called me said this is the guy from the Rendez-vous bar
You said I caught your eye
You'd like to be my guy
You said you thought I fell from the stars
But when you got your way, I saw the game that you play
you're a cold cold cold cold hearted man

Well I was talkin' to Amanda, Ruth and Cassandra
I felt like a poor little fool
Now I've got cold feet for the next guy that I meet
'cause you treated me so darn cruel But somebody's gonna get ya, you'll crash and I'll betch - you'll be the one cryin' the blues.

Well you're a cold hearted fella
A thief and I tell ya, took my joy and you won't give it back
I've cried me a river, my heart's all a quiver,
But today you're gonna get yours back
You'll be the clown at the circus
And you'll never jerk us around, again, you cold hearted man
Oh you're a cold cold cold cold hearted man

There's a Dark Cloud Hangin' Over Me

It's a sad and lonely day when you cause pain
Cause of my careless ways, nothin'll be the same
My family pays the cost, peace of mind is lost
And I'm left to bear the mark of shame

*There's a dark cloud hangin' over me
There's a dark cloud hangin' over me
It's hangin' or' my head, lord I wish that I were dead
There's a dark cloud hangin' over me*

My daddy said boy, "put away your gun
My daddy said child, "put your away your gun"
"put away your gun, 'fore somebody hurts someone"
My daddy said boy, put away your gun

Little brother got a man in his sights
Little brother got a man in his sights
Got a man in his sights, now mama don't sleep much at nights
Little brother got a man in his sights

There's a dark cloud hangin' over me ...

I'm haunted by his face now day and night
I'm haunted by his face now day and night
It's fillin' up my head, cause of me this man is dead,
I'm haunted by his face now day and night

There's a dark cloud hangin' over me

I'll be Your Fool to the End of My Days

Waltz time – key of C

When did you get the time to stray
How did you hide so well
When did you fall into the arms
Of lust's seductive spell

*Have I been fooled these many years
Have I been blind to your ways
Did you really love me once
I'll be your fool to the end of my days*

How can you look me in the eye
How can you bear to see
Your reflection as you lie
Your lies are killing me

From One Cheatin' Heart to Another

You say my cheatin' heart will make me weep
That I'll walk the floor and I won't get any sleep Well it seems you've forgotten what you put me through Now this cheatin' heart is tellin' you

*You drove me crazy with your lyin' and your constant criticising Crazy with your flirtin'
Couldn't see that I was hurtin'
You left me sad and lonely,
I was not your one and only
And now the hurtin's on you*

You think my tears will fall like pourin' rain
And I'll toss around and I will call your name
You walk the floor the whole night through
And you can't see why I'm over you

Chorus

You say my poor heart will pine for you
And I'll crave the love that you and I once knew Well I've news for you and I'm sincere
From one cheatin' heart to another, let's make it clear

It Hurts

key c - d - e

(C)

It hurts

When you treat me like you do

it hurts

to know you're seeing someone new

it hurts, cause you lied when you said... I do

I can't

Continue this charade

I can't

Pretend that everything's the same

It hurts, cause you lied and you don't seem to feel the shame

People stop and ask me how we're doing these days

I haven't told them of your secret ways

I've tried to forget that you have been untrue

But it keeps coming back, coming back to make me blue

(D)

It hurts

To know you're sneaking around town

It hurts

To think that you have put me down

It hurts, cause you lied, and you are never...around

I feel like we are strangers when we lie in bed at night

Your eyes give you away, and you never hold me tight

I've tried to forget that you've been untrue

But it keeps coming back, coming back to make me feel blue

(E)

It hurts

When you treat me like you do

it hurts

to know you're seeing someone new

it hurts, cause you lied when you said... I do

Take it to Heart

Take it to Heart I should have never left your side
Should have had faith in our romance
And put aside my foolish pride

Take it to Heart, believe me when I say
That the embers of our love
Can burn strong as yesterday

Two glasses in the parlour, lipstick smudged on one Panic raced my heart, as I figured what you'd done I jumped to conclusions, said things I'm sorry for Made bitter accusations, walked out and slammed the door

Take it to Heart, You know I'll treat you right Put your arms around me baby
And once again just hold me tight

Solo (A)

This loneliness is too much, I suffer sleepless nights
Take me back my darlin', I swear I'll treat you right Without your tender kisses, and the magic of your touch
My days and nights are long dear, haven't I suffered enough

Take it to Heart I should have never left your side
And put aside my foolish pride

Take it to Heart, believe me when I say
That the embers of our love
Can burn strong as yesterday
